Rocks

ROCKS, March 19 — We are hoping April will bring us some warm spring like weather.

The week of prayer for Home missions was observed at the church on last Monday, Wednesday and Friday night with very good attendance.

Friends here wish J. Mott Harvey and Mrs. Fred Martin who entered Va. Baptist Hospital last week a speedy recovery. Also to Mr. Harris of near Pamplin who is ill.

Mrs. Ashden Roach and infant daughter returned home from the hospital last Thursday.

Mrs. Lloyd Richardson was in Lynchburg last Wednesday and Friday having some dental work done.

Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Paulette have returned after a trip to Fla.

Lewis Dickerson, Mrs. Jennie Almond and Mrs. Walter Ransom were notified Sunday afternoon of the death of their uncle, Mr. Jack Farrar of near Norfolk.

Mrs. W. R. Moore was on the sick list last week. Also, Mrs. Dave Childress. We wish them a speedy recovery.

A number from here are planning to attend the Bible School Clinic at Evergreen Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Almond were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Allen E. Franklin and Sheila Joe of Evergreen Sunday.

Rev. W. H. Elder preached a splendid sermon here Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ransom of Richmond spent the week-end here.

Vera

Vera, March 21.- "A soft answer turneth away wrath, but grevious words stir up anger." -Proverbs 15-1.

March has been one of the winter months. So much snow and rain. We will welcome spring.

Visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Harvey on Wednesday were Mrs. Irvin Mack, of Easton, Penn.; Mrs. Mildred Warters, Mrs. Ada Gibson, Miss Mary Geneva Harvey and Mrs. Frank Burford, of Elon.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Harvey attended the funeral of Mrs. Lewis Harvey, in Lynchburg on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Harvey and Miss Harriette visited in the home of Mrs. Willie Mosses on Wednesday night. Sandra and William are both on the sick list.

We are sorry to hear of the passing of Mr. Lewis Turnes. So many are passing away.

Mr. T. J. Harvey spent Friday night in the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Harvey. He also attended the funeral of Mr. Lewis Turnes.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Carson and Sylvia visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Harvey Sunday.

We are glad that Mr. Robert Morris has gotten home from the hospital.

The Y. W. A.'s of New Hope Baptist Church met at the home of Mrs. Margie Doss at Appomattox on Monday night.

Miss Harriette Harvey attended the band festival at Colonial Heights on Saturday.

Hixburg

Dr. W. Twyman Williams is busily packing in preparation for moving to his new home.

He expects to be out of the manse by Friday or Saturday (March 24).

Last Saturday, his son, Dr. Mark Williams, and wife of Richmond came and helped until Sunday.

On Tuesday, March 20, the wife of another son, Mr. William T. Williams, III, and Mrs. Horace Kinnear of Rockbridge County are to come to help finish getting ready for the moving van.

Dr. Williams is a Southern gentleman, as the saying goes "of the first water" and has been a wonderful pastor.

He has endeared himself to the people of folks area who wish him much happiness in the home of his son and namesake, Mr. William T. Williams, III.

His address will be Lexington, R. F. D. No. 5, Edgehill Farm on Route No. 11, six miles north of Lexington.

Next Sunday, March 25, he will preach at the church of his first pastorate, Glasgow Church.

We hope to keep in touch with him.

On Sunday, March 25, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Robinson, of Appomattox, will head for the Cincinnatti School of Embalming where they expects to remain for a year. Mrs. Ann Robinson is the former Anne Martin, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rob Martin of Hixburg.

Mrs. Rob Martin delighted her many friends at Olvie Branch Methodist Church on Sunday morning when she attended the services there, after being sick and unable to go since before Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Rogers in Appomattox had as their dinner guests on Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gobinson of Appomattox, and Mr. and Mrs. Rob Martin and Mrs. Jerry Young of Hixburg.

An afternoon of good fellowship was enjoyed when Mrs. Frances Lucado was hostess to the Pamplin H. D. Club in her home on Thursday.

Mrs. R. K. Martin promised to draw up by-laws for the club.

Appomattox County will be hostess to the District Meeting at Appomattox on April 12.

The next meeting of the Pamplin club will be held in the home of Mrs. Tivis Reeve.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Farinholt and children of Williamsburg were week-end guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt Goin.

On Sunday morning, David and Tommy Hix, sons of Mr. and Mrs. John Hix, broke out with chickenpox. They are reported to be getting along nicely.

Mr. Herbert Burrell is very ill at his home.

Mr. Con Brown has at last moved to Pamplin. For many years he has lived in walking distance of Hixburg, and he's been a general handyman for housekeepers in that area.

Oakville Community 4-H Club

The March meeting of the Oakville Community 4-H Club was held on Tuesday evening at the school. The devotion was led by Ann Dew. Demonstrations on Safety through First Aid were given by Betty Jo Richardson and Joan Lucado. Plans were made for a buffet supper meeting for members and their families on the next regular meeting date.

The local chapter of New Farmers of America held the initiation ceremony for the Farm Hand Degree in the auditorium of Carver-Price High School last Wednesday at activity period. The following boys conducted the ceremony: Tim Watkins, president; Ernest Butler, vice-president; Robert Humbles, secretary; Wallace Booker, treasurer; Ernest Humbles, reporter; Challe Jones, Watchman; Charles Watkins and Carvell Lewis, Conductors. The following boys were raised to the Farm Hand Degree: Leon Lewis, Herbert Daniels, Gordon Jones, Ronald Andrews, Gilbert James, Andrew Majett, Christopher Pennix, Bennie Walker, James Haskins, and Carl Moore.

R. Q. Lawing, local adviser presented each boy the bronze pin.

Remarks were given by Mr. E. T. Johnson, principal.

A large crowd attended the funeral services for the late deacon Samuel Wheeler at the Chestnut Grove Baptist Church last Sunday evening at 2p.m. Deacon Wheeler died in the John Hopkins Hospital after a brief illness. He was a native of the Chestnut Grove Church community but moved to Baltimore after the death of his wife in 1938 and lived with his daughter Mrs. Chestman. He was 95 years old. The following was conducted by the Rev. R. Q. Lawing who delivered the eulogy: Processional, Nearer My God to Thee' choir; Scripture and prayer, Rev. Lawing; Acknowledgements and resolutions; Remarks, Rev. R. A. Edwards; Solo, Mr. Lindsey Marshall; Obituary and eulogy; Recessional, "We Will Understand It Better Bye and Bye." Music was rendered by choir members from St. Luke, Promise Land, Galilee and Chestnut Grove Churches. Burial was held in the church cemetery. The floral designs were in large numbers. Morton Funeral Home of Baltimore had charge of arrangements.

The annual Ladies Day of the Mount Shiloh Baptist Church was enjoyed by all who attended last Sunday evening at 3 p.m. The Rev. H. W. Pryor, pastor of the Union Hill Baptist Church of Bingham was the guest speaker. He was accompanied by the Union choir, and Usher board and a number of the members of church. Mrs. Johnnie Paige is mistress of ceremony. The offering was taken by Mrs. Ida Lewis, Mrs. Ida Elliott and Mary Paige. A total offering $50.19 was raised. Remarks given by the Reverends Pamplin Elliott and Edwards. The pastor of the church gave the final remarks.

The regular quarterely meeting of the Promise Land Baptist church will be held this day, March 24 at 2:30. All officers and members are urged to be present.

Impressive services were held in the Galilee Baptist Church last day morning. The pastor delivered a soul stirring sermon. The choir rendered special music. A large crowd of mourners and friends attended the service. The offering the day was very good. A business meeting was held at the close of the service. The church clubs have their regular meetings at the close of the meeting.

The regular monthly meeting of the local Carver P.T.A. will be held this Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Plans for the church institute will be presented. The leaders in the churches are cordially invited to attend the institute which will be conducted on Saturday March 30 at 10 a.m.

The public is cordially invited to attend the regular preaching service at the Promiseland Baptist church this Sunday at the 11:30 a.m. hour. At the close of the worship a special rally will be held by the men of the church. Plans arrange to attend and support the men. The pastor will deliver a special sermon to the men.
